

I believe there should be a rollback to more stringent limits to media ownership than exist currently, much less allowing further monopolistic ownership. It simply does not serve the public good. Diverse ownership is healthy, concentrated ownership is not.